WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND WHAT COULD I GET IN RETURN?

RISK INDICATOR:

Lower risk

Higher risk

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for a minimum of 5 years. You may not be able to sell your product easily or you may have to sell at a price that significantly impacts on how much you get back.

The summary risk indicator ("SRI") is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as class 4 out of 7, which is a medium risk class.

This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level, and poor market conditions could impact the capacity of the fund to pay you.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance. Other risks to be considered may include: Asset class, Counterparty, Derivatives, Hedging, Liquidity, Sustainability, Volatility, amongst others. These are disclosed in the 'Risk Factors Overview' section of the prospectus and the sub-fund appendix for more details.

Be aware of currency risk. You may receive payments in a different currency than the Sub-Fund's base currency, so the final return you get will depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

Adverse market conditions, the use of derivatives, exchange rates and counterparty failure may affect the risk of this product. It is not protected and you could lose some or all of your investment.

Any income arising in relation to this unit class will be accumulated (i.e. automatically reinvested and reflected in the price of the shares).
